

JACOBS UNIVERSITY

FIRST ANNUAL RESEARCH DAY

Presenting Research Opportunities
at Jacobs University

Wednesday, Oct. 5, 2022

14:15 - 18:00

IRC Campus Center

The Jacobs University Research Day is an initiative of the University Committee of Education and the Undergraduate Student Government. It aims to present research at our university in all its diversity and to highlight research opportunities for students in the research groups.

Faculty has the opportunity to present their research in short presentations and then talk to interested students.

Around 30 groups have already indicated their participation.

Initiative: UCE, AAC

Main Organizing Team: Theresa Roewer, Prof. Dr. Sören Petrat, Prof. Dr. Marc-Thorsten Hütt, Dr. Franziska Deutsch
